understanding your insurance

‘Cooling Off’ Cancellation Rights

You are entitled to a 14 day cooling off period from the time You receive Your Policy documents. Within this period You can cancel Your Policy. We will refund Your premium less a charge for the time You have been insured, unless Your policy has been terminated following a claim, in which case no refund will be due.

This Certificate of Insurance Explained

Your Endsleigh Travel Insurance Policy is made up of the Policy Summary, Your Schedule and this certificate of insurance. Your Schedule shows the start and end dates of Your cover, the premium You have paid and any special terms which may apply to Your cover. This certificate of insurance tells You exactly what is and what is not covered and lays out all the conditions You must comply with in order to make a claim.

Your Insurer

AXA Insurance UK plc of 5 Old Broad Street, London, EC2N 1AD has underwritten Your policy. AXA Insurance UK plc is authorised and regulated by the Financial Services Authority. Their registered number at the FSA is 202312. This can be checked on the FSA’s register by visiting the FSA’s website at www.fsa.gov.uk/register or by contacting them on 0845 606 1234.

Your Contract of Insurance

Your Travel Insurance Policy is governed by English law. English law will also apply prior to the conclusion of Your contract of insurance. Your contract of insurance and all communications before and during Your contract of insurance will be provided in English.

We insure You for the period shown in the Schedule in return for payment of the premium. You should pay particular attention to the General Conditions and General Exclusions on pages 10-12. The Legal Expenses has its own additional conditions which apply together with the General Conditions.

You must tell Us immediately if any of the information given to Us changes, as failure to do so may invalidate this cover and claims may not be met.

United Kingdom Residents

This policy is only available to You if You are permanently resident in the United Kingdom and registered with a Medical Practitioner in the United Kingdom.

Age Eligibility

This policy is not available to anyone aged 75 or over.

tips and advice for your trip

health advice

- EHC – A European Health Insurance Card (EHC) entitles You to reduced-cost, sometimes free, medical treatment that becomes necessary while You are in a European Economic Area (EEA) country or Switzerland. The EHC is normally valid for three to five years and covers any medical treatment that becomes necessary during Your trip, because of either illness or an accident. You can apply for an EHC online, by phone or by post. For further information visit the Department of Health web site at www.dh.gov.uk or telephone 0845 606 2030. To apply by post, pick up the EHC form and pre-addressed envelope from the Post Office.
- Flying during pregnancy – Some airlines refuse to accept passengers who are more than 28 weeks pregnant, be sure to check before You depart.
- If You take regular medication, take an extra supply and keep it with You in case Your Luggage is lost, also take a Doctors note as a precaution to explain what the medication is for in case You are stopped by customs.

criminal incidents

- Report any incident to the local Police within 24 hours of the incident occurring and insist they provide You with a report (or incident number).
- The majority of personal possessions claims are as a result of baggage being left unattended at airports, railway stations, beaches, etc. Ensure You take proper care of Your belongings to avoid Your claim being refused.
- NEVER carry any parcels or Luggage through customs or across borders for other people, and be aware of briefcase/Luggage switches in busy airports.
- The British Consulate, situated in most capital cities, should be contacted if You are arrested. They can:
 - issue an emergency passport to get You back to the UK.
 - contact family and friends and offer advice on transferring funds to You from the UK.
 - in an Emergency, advance £100 against a sterling cheque supported by a bankers card.
 - offer advice about local lawyers and the local legal and prison systems.

For up to date information on circumstances affecting Your safety in over 130 countries visit the Foreign & Commonwealth Travel Advice website at <http://www.fc.gov.uk> or telephone 0870 6060 290.

tourism concerns

- Worldwide Fund for Nature – 01483 426 444 – Get advice about products from endangered species in the Country You are travelling to.
- Tourism Concern – 020 7753 3330 – Environmental concerns about tourism.
- Health Literature line, (0800) 555 777.

Legal Expenses Cover is subject to the General Conditions and Exclusions on pages 10-12, together with some additional Conditions which apply to legal expenses only. These are listed on page 30 and You should read them carefully before submitting a claim for legal expenses.

additional conditions applying to section 11 – legal expenses

Legal Expenses Cover is subject to the General Conditions and General Exclusions applying to the whole certificate of insurance on pages 10-12 together with the following additional conditions which apply to legal expenses only:-

1. When making a claim You may notify Us of the Appointed Representative whom You wish to act for You and We may accept or refuse the nomination. If We cannot agree with You on an Appointed Representative then the Law Society will be asked to nominate an Appointed Representative and their decision will be final.
2. We must have contact with Your Appointed Representative whenever We need to and access to Your case files if We ask for these. Both You and Your Appointed Representative must co-operate with Us fully and keep Us informed of all developments with the case.
3. You must give all the information and help Your Appointed Representative may need, including a truthful account of all the events related to the claim.
 - a) No agreement to settle will be made without Our prior approval.
 - b) If You refuse to accept a reasonable offer to settle a claim, We may refuse to pay any further Costs and Expenses.
 - c) We may decide to pay You the amount of damages that You are claiming for instead of continuing legal proceedings.
5. If You want to appeal, You must give Us Your reasons and get Our written agreement, before lodging the appeal.
6. If for any reason the Appointed Representative refuses to continue acting for You or if You withdraw Your claim from the Appointed Representative then We will not pay any further Costs or Expenses unless We agree on another Appointed Representative to continue with the claim.
7. You must send Us all bills for Your Appointed Representatives expenses as soon as You receive them. You must confirm to Us that any charges You have to pay to Your Appointed Representative are acceptable and that We may pay the bill for You.
8. You will take all reasonable steps to recover from Your opponent Costs and Expenses. You must pay any recovered Costs and Expenses to Your Appointed Representative who must then reimburse Us.
9. You must tell the Appointed Representative to have Costs and Expenses taxed, assessed or audited if We ask for this.
 - a) You must keep to the terms and conditions of this section.
 - b) You must take all reasonable steps to keep any amount We have to pay as low as possible.
 - c) You must try to prevent anything happening that may cause a claim.
11. We may at Our discretion require You to obtain at Your expense, an opinion from a barrister chosen by You and Us, as to the merits of a claim or proceedings. If the barristers opinion indicates that there are reasonable grounds for the pursuit or defence of a claim or proceedings, the cost of obtaining the opinion will be paid for by Us.
